Letterhead and Company Description

veBuy is a company that allows businesses as well as consumers to buy and sell products on an easy to use ecommerce based platform. Consumer may post and/or purchase a product of any kind on the website and veBuy will facilitate the exchange. veBuy will also provide an array of office supplies at a discounted rate. Another service offered to our customers is a means of advertising. With banner ads and premier product placement on our site, veBuy serves as a marketplace and a promotional outlet. The need for this company arises, as business may desire an alternative means of advertisement and sales. A business may also need to earn quick capital via liquidation, and consumers may need products at a lower cost than retail pricing.
