Letterhead and Company Description:

We are a company who wants to make having fun easy. No more “there is nothing to do” or “i’m bored” and more of “who wants to play” or “the fun never ends”. We have come up with this innovative idea of miniaturizing all of your favorite games and sports. Not so much small versions but literally the whole set can fit in both of your hands. We are a company built of 14 creative, hardworking, and determined employees. Our product will teach competitiveness in a smart and fun way, all these games require 1+ people.
