COMPANY LETTERHEAD AND DESCRIPTION

Boxed In

Dear fan,

First, a big thank you!

Boxed In is focused on satisfying and insuring each and every one of your purchases are adequate. We provide an immense amount of categories for anyone in favor from makeup to video game culture. The convenience of being your number one supplier of merchandise is the customer service as well as the high quality items you will receive each month. Changing categories for the next months subscription is as simple as a click of a button! Same can be said if you would like to switch back!

Through our commodities we insure to include every preference for each category and can guarantee satisfaction in your purchase. Not only are you investing into your purchase, your investing into the company.

Lots of love,

Ishan Patel

Boxed In is a limited liability corporation that was established in August of 2019. Before deciding on Boxed In as our company, back in April of 2019 our employees began brainstorming other types of ideas for businesses and Boxed In is what appealed most to our employees. Our company is located on 301 Loris Lions Road in Loris, South Carolina. Boxed In offers a multitude of subscription type boxes that appeal to people with all sorts of hobbies including, but not limited to, a survival box for those who love the outdoors, a makeup box for those who love wearing and collecting different types of makeup, and a video game box that appeals to gamers from all different types of consoles. The boxes that our products are shipped in are made from 100% recyclable materials to help the environment.
