KYOTO

To the Editor-In-Chief:

Kyoto is an environmentally friendly streetwear brand who strives to make you look stylish and feel comfortable all at the same time. We use bamboo fibers in our clothing, as they absorb 35% more carbon emissions than cotton, and can be stitched to trap in the heat or let it out to keep you cool. Our clothing varies from T-shirts and hoodies to sweatbands and socks, and are appropriate in any scenario such as sleeping, partying and working out. Be apart of the solution. Kyoto is the key.

Sincerely,
