Welcome Future Laser Tag Master!

Prepare to be zapped into the future of fun with our new and innovative Laser Tag Company. We come to you to transform your backyard or school gym into a phenomenal battlefield experience. We hope to become the world leader in mobile laser tag and to help you to reinvent your hobby of laser tag into something you've never seen before. An active game set in a fantasy world to take you away from reality. Highly competitive gaming sport that will have you racing against your opponents for the final winning shot. We are here to re-imagine and mold the future of laser tag, and provide people with a life changing, incredible experience.

Each player tries to hit players of opposing teams by shooting at their sensors; it is indeed an action packed game. With our theme based around James Bond we have specific gear. Such as our suit vest, an electric vest that is designed to look like a suit and tie, plus our added fedora to complete the spy look; the fedora to has sensors in it too. Our black light Pack is an amazing example of one of our spy ambiance.

Coming Soon

BY DACHEL WHEELER

With the New Year came a whole new 007 Lazer tag!

We have gone through a rebranding and is excited to share that we are going to be adding new and exciting things.

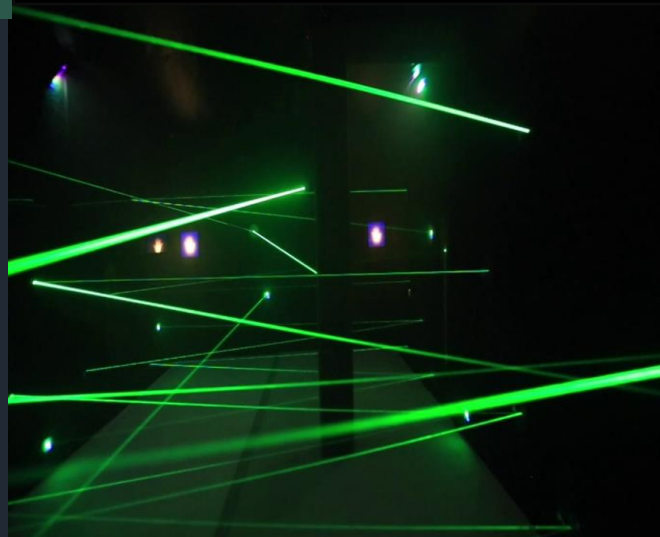

We plan to add a new extension pack so you can add a dash of more fun into your packages. We proudly would like to introduce to you the Lazer Maze!

The Lazer Maze is an awesome new game set up were you must escape to the other side to complete your mission but wait there is a catch you can't get touched by any of the lasers or you are out. This new extension pack adds an even more spy like ominous and keeps you forever on high alert. You never know when these lasers are going to just pop up!

That's not all, coming soon is new limited time only packages that will have you racing to place and order, and our new and improved website.

So stay tuned and be on the lookout because we are better than ever.

"Be undeniably good. No marketing effort or social media buzzword can be a substitute for that." —Anthony Volodkin, Hype Machine founder

Meet our Staff

BY DACHEL WHEELER

We would like to finally introduce our staff members.

Alicia Ireland is our one woman team on our graphics department. Alicia is in charge of all our amazing designs, and art work. Alicia is a strong and hardworking lady who is always on task and is always coming providing us with nothing but the best.

Arishia Stewart another one women team who takes care of all our finances and Sales record. A head strong lady who insures our company is always on top of our sales and meeting our daily quota.

Dachel Wheeler a lady who knows how to get things done. Dachel works fast and is always on task completing and ensuring that we put out top quality work.

Shavonne Smith a lady who does a little bit of everything she helps everyone in anything no matter the department. Shavonne keeps the creative flow going when either of is in a pinch.

Quintin Stinney the only guy left in our Business, Quintin is the Head of the Marketing department. A hard working young man who knows determination, and dedication is key for a business.

~Employee of the Month~

We would like to give a big shout out to our one women team of our graphics department. A strong and hardworking young lady who always provides us with nothing but the best. No matter the outrageous ideas we come up with she always finds a way to piece our ideas together to form an outstanding piece of art work. Her determination and quick skills always keeps us afloat when we are deep in creative block. Thank You Alicia for all that you do for us we truly appreciate it.

Upcoming Vel Events

By DACHEL WHEELER

Be on the lookout, 007 Lazer Tag is going to the Vei Trade show. Our booth is going to be smaller than what it was last year, but rest assure that the fun will continue to be bigger than ever. Prepare to meet our small batch of employees packing a lot of fun and excitement. We have photo ops and even our own Snap chat Filter so you can show off to all your friends and family. Keeping to our Spy like laser theme we will be dressed in a suit and tie.

Do not be alarmed if you are approached and considered one of our "targets" the mission is clear, make new friends, have some fun, and spread our company name all over.

More information ...

1. All of our employees have planned to be registered into the Vei Global Business Challenge.
2. Our Marketing department will be competing in the National Marketing competition.
3. Our employees plan to participate in the sales pitch competition as well.
4. 007Lazer Tag has also decided to try our chances at the best booth competition.

Wish us good luck!

To the Big Apple

BY DACHEL WHEELER

Yup! You guessed right 007Lazer Tag is heading to New York.

Prepare because we came with a mission and we plan to complete it and land on top. 007Lazer Tag is taking their business to New York, all our employees are super excited this will be our first time going to such an important event. The youth Business Summit is a huge opportunity that we plan to make the most out of.

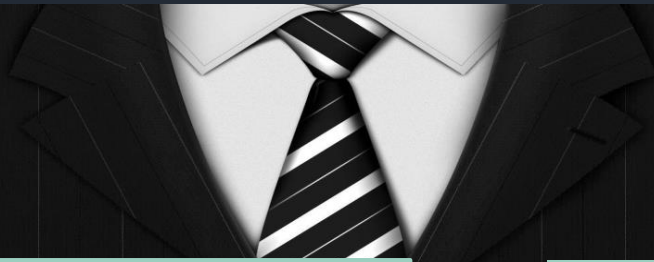

Just thinking about all the young professionals and soon to be entrepreneurs from around the world in one place is a thrilling thought. A week full of business competitions, leadership events will be a step closer to understanding what it's truly like to own a business, market this business and to compete against other businesses.

No matter what just meeting talented middle and high school students from at least 40 different countries will be a phenomenal experience all on its own.

The countdown has already started and we here at 007 Lazer Tag is zapping with uncontained excitement. See you in New York!

We cannot wait to meet you all and make very memorable memories to last a life time.
