

In our February issue:

FINANCIAL REPORT

Our Accounting Department has really progressed within these past few months. We have been raising money for our trip, our booth, and also our props for the trade show. Everyone has really been helpful & focused on our goal of raising money for our company Envision³, Hats off to a job well done! - Gloria Myler, Accounting

LETTER FROM THE CEO

by Darius Davis

Dear Company,

I am very excited to be appointed Chief Executive Officer of our company Envision³. I look forward to see the results of this fast developing company. I enjoy leading Marketing and Sales and lending expertise to Accounting and Human Resources. I hope working with you all now and for the foreseeable future will continue to be an unforgettable experience.

THIS MONTHS BIRTHDAYS

This month, Anthony Martin from the Marketing and Sales department was the only one celebrating a birthday.

MONTHLY JOKE

How do you make a waterbed more bouncy?

you add spring water!

CONGRATULATIONS CLASS OF 2018

by Nicholas Lea

Many of our seniors at Envision3 have received honors of being accepted to many top colleges. Envision3 encourages our employees to further their education for continued growth.

Victoria Tanner- Old Dominion University and Ferrum

Leopold Madejas- George Mason University, Old Dominion University, and James Madison University

Nicholas Lea- George Mason University and James Madison University

Iesha Coleman- VCU

Gloria Myler- Norfolk State, Johnson and Wales University and Old Dominion University

Mikala Bethel- Virginia Union University and Concord University

Cheyenne Whitsett- Averett and Ferrum

Darius Davis- Ferrum, James Madison University and Liberty University

Christopher Hudgins- Bridgewater, Radford University, Hampden-Sydney, Mary Baldwin University

Nashae - Ferrum and Randolph

Ray Russell- Danville Community College, Roanoke and Hampden-Sydney

Tips For College Bound Seniors

- Don't be afraid of goodbyes
- As tempting as it is, try not to skip class
- Try to develop friendships with your teachers
- Who you are in high school doesn't matter in college
- Enjoy your last year of high school
- Stay determined, and be yourself